Fourteen of the carols we will be singing are in the The Derbyshire Book of Village Carols, which contains 89 carols from twelve villages. If you would like to collect a copy or copies on the day to save postage, please order in advance. The other two carols are from a remarkable collection, The Eyam Book of Eighteenth-Century Carols. If you would like a set of the carol music as photocopies, please order here and collect on the day. For transpositions for instrumentalists, please get in touch. There will be a charge for this (£10.00 including p&p). Copies must be ordered by 10th November.
